

With a popular weekly radio show, hosted every tuesday on London's leading internet house music station, Push Fm. Jerry provides not only the best upfront house music but also enjoys delving into the archives to select the best and most influential Motown, Jazz, Soul and lots more.

Some say he's the jack of all trades, one thing is certain that he is the master of one - Quality House Music! With his cut n paste approach in crossing from one genre of house music to another on a minimum of three turntables, Frempong has only one interest in mind - to create a frenzy! With the likes of Danny Rampling, Derrick Carter, Osunlade and Morillo influencing his musical prowess it's certainly evident of his passion behind the decks and on the dancefloor.

"I was recently dancing to Jerry at Plan B in Brixton for most of his set. The sound system pumped out influences of Joe Claussell, coupled with the mixing skills, energy of Carl Cox (who is another South Londoner). Jerry has personality, warmth, soul, passion, outstanding rhythm, mixing skills, focus and ambition to go all the way to the top of the DJ list. Book this guy to rock your club now" - Danny Rampling

"Jerry is without doubt one of the new rising stars to come out of South London, with his varied musical taste and mixing skills blending into one big PARTY. BIG UP....& check him out !!!" - Trevor Fung

"In an extremely competitive and ever changing industry Jerry, Ian, and all of the Pret boys provide a very different, uplifting and friendly experience that makes them stand out from the rest. Their sound is upfront and ranges from soulful to funk to disco to deep house whilst keeping a very underground vibe. The Pret parties are legendary, and building up quite a reputation and following in London and around the UK. In summary – Wicked people & wicked tunes". - Kamran Jones

"After stomping the world with his life in a backpack Jerry returned to the UK with a fire in his belly and Prêt a Ecouter Music was born.

Prêt a Ecouter Music first hit London in 2005, rocking the city from jazzy little venues in the heart of Chelsea to the underground hubs of Shoreditch and Soho. Prêt then continued to bring their unique party atmosphere to the River Thames where in Summer 2007 Prêt Hosted its 3rd annual Boat party. Delivering Balearic treats and minimal beats; Jerry and crew rocked a 5 hour belter under the moonlight with a view of London's tourists attractions to boot.

In October 2006, Media interest led to Jerry receiving an invite from ITV to play alongside Sir Norman Jay at their biggest Commercial Conference after party. As always with Jerry this was a party to remember. I have never seen anyone bounce so much behind the decks, injecting every last drop of his passion for life and music into his sets. Jerry boasts tons of talent and vision, a true inspiration for any budding musician and DJ." - Sanchia Rattigan (ITV)
